

SELECTION.COM®

Where smart hiring begins®

Employment Credit Report Summary

- Management of personal finances can be an important indicator of an applicant's ability to prioritize and manage corporate responsibilities, especially finances, and are a must if an applicant will be handling cash.
- These reports feature the following information:
 - The Credit header will list the last three known addresses.
 - Employment information, where available.
 - Public record items, if they exist, including:
 - Tax liens (reported for seven years after a lien is filed).
 - Judgments (report for seven years after judgment is entered)
 - Chapter 7 bankruptcies (reported for 10 years following the bankruptcy).
 - Chapter 13 bankruptcies (reported for seven years following the bankruptcy).
 - Collection items: (if they exist) and their status.
 - A listing of accounts, in order from "worst to best" of creditors, allowing you to easily interpret the information.
- Results are available in real time.

Features

- Up to seven years of public records are listed.
- You also will see a list of other companies making employment inquiries into the applicant's credit file.
- Credit Reports require a name, address, Social Security Number, and a signed release form from the applicant.

SELECTION.COM®

Where smart hiring begins®