

Motor Vehicle Records Report Summary

- Motor Vehicle Reports (MVRs), often mandated by industry and legislative directives, are critical for positions involving driving, freight delivery, transportation of employees or clients, or other motor vehicle operations.
- MVRs are available from all 50 states and the District of Columbia, with some restrictions.
- Typical MVRs provide physical description, home address, dates verified, license status, license class, issue date, expiration date, restrictions, endorsements, CDL status and violations (including driving under the influence).
- Turnaround times are instant for the following states: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.
- Once state-specific forms are filled out for New Hampshire and Washington, they are also available instantly.
- Turnaround times will average 1-2 days for other states. (Some turnarounds are longer due to state mandated procedures.)

Features

- Violations are listed by the following categories: DUI's, moving violations and suspensions.
- Details provided in each report are state specific and can include date of violation, code violated, specifics of violation, and points assigned.
- MVRs will typically cover from 3-7 years of driving history, depending on state.
- The following information is required to run MVRs: name, driver's license number, state and date of birth.
